Senator Hanna stands by Secretary Alger. Secretary Alger chipped into Hanna's campaign hat pretty freely.

The New York Herald asks, if we keep the Philippines what then?" Why then after we have got sick trying to Americanize those fellows, we'll wish we hadn't.

A contemporary remarks that Secretary Alger finds a stout defender in General Wheeler. Generosity is one of General Wheeler's traits. He helps the under dog in the fight.

The remains of General Windfield Scott Hancock, who commanded the Federal army at the battle of Gettysburg, lie in a grave overgrown with weeds and marked only by a little stone. In the language of the distinguished Rip Van Winkle "how soon we are forgot ven we are gone!"

The New York Sun remarks that "the disarmament suggested to the European States by the Russian Emperor, has been "practically the policy of this country from its foundation." And yet the Sun and other imperialist organs advise a course that will compel this country to depart from this policy, and do the very thing that the Czar of Russia proposes to put an end to. A big army and a big navy is the cry of the imperialists.

Although royal scalps are still in demand in Europe the royal hair market is down. Bunches of hair of Edward IV and George III of England, of Napoleon Bonaparte and of Princess Charlotte of Wales recently were knocked off at auction as a job lot for $14.

When the schools open next Monday in New York City twenty thousand children will be kept out for want of accommadations.

They claimed to have lost those first given them; but there is a strong suspicion that they gave them to a cross-eyed boy in Fayetteville, who captivated them with the strains of a mouth-organ.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.

A Colored Boy Seriously Wounded by a Pistol Ball in Mr. A. P. Yopp's Shop on Second Street.

Claude Fisher, a young white man employed in the bicycle store of Mr. A. P. Yopp, on Second between Princess and Market streets, accidentally shot George Dudley, colored, late yesterday afternoon. Mr. Fisher was cleaning a pistol on a small piazza at the rear of the shop and there was a group of other young white men around him. George Dudley, who works at the shop and is about sixteen years of age, came in and started out on the back piazza. He got to the back door and making some trivial remark, turned back and started to the work bench. When he was about five feet from the door Fisher accidentally dropped the pistol. It went off and Dudley exclaimed that he was shot. Fisher thought first that the colored boy was joking, but when he found out that he was really hurt, he sent at once for Dr. D. W. Bulluck. The ball struck first on the floor and lost a good deal of its force thereby.

Dr. Bulluck had the wounded boy placed in his buggy and driven around to his office on Front street. After examination he told a STAR reporter that the ball entered the boy's body in the back over the right kidney. Dr. Bulluck stated that it would not have been good surgery to probe for the wound. So he was not able to tell whether the ball went to the hollow or not. The boy was placed on a street car and sent to his home on Kidder's Hill.

Fisher went at once to look for a justice of the peace, intending to give himself up. He had visited two or three offices without finding a justice, when Policeman MacFarlane, colored, arrested him and carried him to the City Hall. After a wait of about three quarters of an hour, Capt. D. S. Bender arrived at the Hall and put the prisoner under a hundred dollars justified bond for his appearance at the Mayor's Court at 12 o'clock to-day.

The beginning of a riot could be seen in front of the bicycle shop in fifteen or twenty minutes after the accident occurred. Some of the negroes believed that the shooting was not accidental and they were disposed to give trouble. But they were soon quieted down as it was so apparent that the negro boy was accidentally shot.

LOCKEY WILL NOT BE LUCKY.

Pritchard and Duncan Will See That He Is Beheaded in Due Time.

The fate of Lockey, Republican candidate for Judge in this district, is in the hands of one man. That man is Jeter C. Pritchard, who was elected to the United States Senate by the most shameful bribery of seventeen Populist members of the Legislature. His faithful henchman in North Carolina is Carl Duncan, whose election to the Legislature from Carteret county in 1896 cost either Pritchard or the Republican leaders, or both, as the STAR is informed, the snug little sum of twenty-five hundred dollars. Carl was an expensive luxury, but Pritchard needed him in the Legislature, so enough voters were debauched to elect Duncan by a small majority.

These two men, Pritchard and Duncan, are "running" the Republican party in North Carolina. Their word is law. They can "kill and make alive;" and the STAR considers it as good as settled that they will "kill" Lockey and "make alive" Loftin. Never mind what the members of the Republican State Committee have told Lockey—his name will not be on the Judicial ticket that will be "fixed up" at Raleigh. Mark the prediction!

An Element of Strength.

No ticket has ever been nominated by the Democrats of New Hanover county that was more equitably apportioned among the wards of the city and the townships outside than that which the white voters are now called on to support.

In the city, the First ward has John Barry for Commissioner and Wm. Sheehan, Sr., for Constable. The Second ward has John D. Taylor for Clerk, Roger Moore for Commissioner, W. W. Harriss for Coroner, and Jos. H. McRee for Surveyor. The Third ward has George L. Peschau for the Legislature. The Fourth ward has Walter G. McRae for Sheriff, and H. McL. Green for Treasurer. The Fifth ward has W. H. Biddle for Register of Deeds. The townships outside the city have Joseph T. Kerr for the Legislature, and W. F. Alexander for Commissioner. Thus every section of the county has been recognized.

The Kennel Club Wins.

Yesterday afternoon Justice J. J. Fowler announced his ruling in the case of the Masonboro Kennel Club vs. Calvin Bell, colored, for the recovery of a fine hound. The decision was in favor of the Kennel Club and an execution was issued for the immediate delivery of the dog to the keeper of the club; Herbert McClammey, Esq., attorney for Bell gave notice of an appeal to the Superior Court. Brooke Empie, Esq., is counsel for the club.

Death of a Little Girl.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller, Tenth and Chesnut streets, had the sad misfortune yesterday morning to lose their little girl, Mamie Murphy Miller. She was seventeen months old and had been sick for two or three weeks. The funeral will take place at 9:30 o'clock this morning from the residence.

AUDIT AND FINANCE.

Regular Semi-Monthly Meeting of the Board Yesterday Afternoon—Lamplighter's Bond and Bid.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Board of Audit and Finance was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Present, Chairman H. C. McQueen and members S. P. McNair, J. H. Webber and H. A. DeCover.

Under unfinished business was the acceptance of the bid of J. P. Bowen, the lamp-lighter. Aldermen Gore and Keith appeared before the board and asked that action on the bond be deferred until after a meeting of the Board of Aldermen September 15th when that board would take some action in the matter. Alderman Keith stated that at Monday night's meeting of the Board of Aldermen there were three petitions from the poorly lighted sections of the city asking for better or electric lights. On motion, it was ordered that the acceptance of both the bond and bid should be deferred until the next meeting of the Board of Audit and Finance on September 20th when final action will be taken.

A communication from the Board of Aldermen stating that the Board had appropriated $50 to meet expenses of fitting up the park on Front street was read. The Board of Audit and Finance approved the expenditure.

Bills for current expenses, amounting to $7,254.56, were audited and approved, after which an adjournment was taken.

DISGRACEFUL AFFAIR.

Three Young White Women Brutally Insulted and One of them Struck by a Colored Woman.

About 4 o'clock last Sunday afternoon a most disgraceful affair occurred on Red Cross street on the board walk leading to Oakdale Cemetery. Three young white ladies were walking toward the Cemetery and between Sixth and Seventh streets they met two negro women coming from the cemetery. Seeing that the negro women were not disposed to give the white ladies even half of the walk, the latter stepped clear off the walk on the ground. Not content with taking all of the walk one of the negro women stepped off and brutally ran against one of the young white ladies. But this wasn't the worst of the infamous affair. As was perfectly natural under the circumstances, the white lady pushed her assailant from her. Then the negro woman struck the white lady over the shoulder with her umbrella and walked off. To make the insult more galling, a negro man who witnessed the shameful spectacle, shouted "that's right, give her hell." As it happened, there was no white man near or the affair might have ended differently. The negroes were total strangers to the young ladies.

THE BICYCLE MEET FRIDAY.

The Three Medals to be Awarded—Other Valuable Prizes Offered.

As briefly announced in yesterday's STAR there are to be some interesting bicycle races on Wrightsville beach Friday afternoon of this week under the auspices of the Carolina Cycle Club. The entry sheet is now open at the bicycle store of Mr. M. P. Taylor, Jr., where racers can enter up to 6 P. M. Thursday.

There are to be three principal races for the three handsome club medals, the one mile championship medal, the one-half mile Seacoast medal and the one-quarter mile Ocean View medal.

There will also be a number of ludicrous races, interspersing the three features of the meet. Among them are to be sack races, three-legged races and others. Valuable first and second prizes are to be awarded in all the races.

The finish will be in front of the Ocean View pavilion, and every effort will be made to have the races thoroughly interesting and well worth a trip to Wrightsville beach.

The racers will go down on the 2.30 P. M. train and the races will be run as soon after reaching the beach as the tides are favorable.

Clyde* will make the first trip to Wilmington under the new schedule.

The Mayor's Court.

Mayor pro tem. Hewlett held a court yesterday afternoon and bound over Ed. Powell, colored, to the Criminal Court, to answer the charge of fighting. He participated quite aggressively in a row at the corner of Seventh and Nixon streets. A $100 justified bond was required, which he failed to give.

TWO OFFICERS TO BE TRIED.

Special Policeman and Negro Deputy Sheriff Charged With Serious Offences.

In Justice Jno. J. Fowler's Court this afternoon two officers of the law will be tried; one for assault and battery with deadly weapon and the other for assault and battery. The first named offence is charged against Special Policeman J. J. Jackson and the second against Deputy Sheriff D. W. Teachy, colored. The prosecutor and party claimed to have been assaulted is Alice Jennings, colored. She was, in fact, tried yesterday afternoon before Justice Fred Rice, on the charge of disorderly conduct and the case dismissed. It was in arresting her in the case dismissed that the assaults charged in the cases against the officers were made on last Sunday morning. Disorderly conduct was not proven in the case yesterday and now the woman charges that Teachy forced an entrance into her house and used violent means to carry her from her own house when she had committed no offence.

Capt. and Mrs. Lambert Entertain.

Capt. A. E. Lambert and his charming wife, of the British schooner Bianca, entertained a party yesterday at dinner on their vessel, now loading at Chadbourn's mill. Among the guests were Miss Hattie Leggett, of Greenville, Mr. W. P. Monroe, wife and children, and Mr. James W. Monroe.

The Bianca will leave here Thursday for a port in the West Indies, greatly to the regret of the numerous friends that Capt. and Mrs. Lambert have made here.

John D. Bellamy Jr's House Entered.

On Tuesday night the residence of John D. Bellamy, Jr., Esq., 311 Ann street, was entered and literally ransacked. The family is still residing on the Sound and there was no one in the house. Nothing of especial value has yet been missed. A gallon of fine wine was either drunk or carried away. The entrance was effected through a rear door. There is no clue to the guilty parties.

RALEIGH NEWS BUDGET.

The Muddle About the First and Second Regiments—The Third Will Move to Knoxville Shortly.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

RALEIGH, N. C., September 6.

Mr. R. H. Boone, of Durham, has declined to be a candidate for solicitor, on account of ill health.

J. C. L. Harris has gone to Washington to try to straighten out the muddle into which the War Department has precipitated them. Gov. Russell was asked by your correspondent if the Washington report that he requested that the First regiment be mustered out was true. He replied: "I don't believe I'll make any statement now; I'll let them go on lying on me awhile."

The poll-holders and registrars for Wake county were appointed last evening; one Republican, one Populist and one Democrat were appointed at each precinct.

The retention of the Second regiment against the wishes of 96 per cent. of the men will cause much trouble.

The Third regiment will move to Knoxville shortly. They will pass straight through North Carolina. Is this meant for a vote getter?

The Republicans will begin soon using cartoons, it is said. A Republican, who is an important factor in this campaign, said to-day "No, we do not expect the war, railroad commission or silver to play the slightest part in this campaign. There is only one issue that the Democrats have raised and the only thing for us to do is to get our men to the polls.

Rumor has it that the Democrats will name no candidate for Congress in the Second, Fourth and Eighth districts and thus concentrate on the county Legislative tickets.

THE SECOND REGIMENT.

Chamber of Commerce to Take Action. The Regiment May Now Be Mustered Out After All.

A meeting of the Chamber of Commerce is called for 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. Action will be taken looking to the mustering out of the Second Regiment. There is strong disapproval here of the rescinding of the original order, and it is thought that some emphatic action by the commercial bodies of the city will have some influence on the authorities. The meeting will be open to all.

Letters have been received from several members of Company K, asking that some effort be made to have the regiment mustered out.

A special dispatch to the Charlotte Observer, from Washington, D. C., Sept. 5th, says:

"It is semi-officially stated that as a result of the muddled state of affairs in connection with the North Carolina volunteers, both the First and Second regiments will be ordered out of service within the next few weeks. J. C. L. Harris was at the War Department to-day, attempting to have the order for the First to be mustered out revoked, the Governor having again changed his mind. Mr. Harris denied that the Governor had requested the first order revoked, but the officials here said they had the messages on file and that no order relative to the mustering out of the North Carolina Volunteers had been made except at the request of the Governor.

General Corbin told me this afternoon that the matter would be definitely settled to-morrow.

He is disgusted with the state of affairs in connection with the North Carolina Volunteers since Governor Russell has changed his mind so often. He says that the negro regiment will not soon get back to the State; that at any rate it will be held away from North Carolina until after the election.

LILLIAN TUCKER COMPANY.

Three Members Arrived Yesterday From Chicago—Misses Goodrich, Celebrated Dancers.

Attractive posters were yesterday put upon the Opera House bill boards announcing the Lillian Tucker Theatrical Company, which is now rehearsing here and will entertain every night next week. Mr. William Pottle, Miss Eunice Goodrich and Miss Theodora Goodrich arrived from Chicago yesterday, having been more than four days on the road, detained at Knoxville on account of a railway accident.

Miss Eunice Goodrich is the wonderful dancer, who introduces the serpentine, kaleidoscope, statue, phantom, fire demon, butterfly and dance of the nation specialties. The company will carry a complete electrical apparatus for these dances. Little Miss Theodora is also a celebrated child actress, singer and dancer. The rehearsals are, Manager Vaught says, progressing very satisfactorily.

They Are Coming Back.

Andrew Henderson, of Brown Sound, Onslow county, was here yesterday. He reports that in the whole of his voting precinct there are now only two Populists and there is a possibility that one of them will vote the Democratic ticket. In 1896 in this precinct the Populists were comparatively strong.

Township Meetings.

Township meetings will be held at all voting places in Pender county on Saturday, the 17th inst., at 3 o'clock P. M., to elect delegates to a county convention to be held in the court house in Burgaw on Saturday, the 21st inst., to nominate a member of the House of Representatives, a Sheriff, Clerk of the Superior Court, Register of Deeds, County Surveyor, Coroner and three County Commissioners, and to send delegates to the convention, to be called for the Ninth Congressional District, and also nominate justices of the peace and a township constable. The rules prescribed in our plan of organization should be observed. All persons favoring white supremacy and good government for all classes and who expect to vote for our candidates are cordially invited to attend and take part in our primary meetings.

By order of the Democratic Executive Committee of Pender county.

ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE.

Met Yesterday to Take Final Action as to Y. M. C. A. Star Course.

There was a meeting of the entertainment committee of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock, during which arrangements for the Star Course for the coming season were concluded. The committee decided that it would be impossible to secure a creditable attraction for October so that the first feature of the Star course will be on the evening of November 25th when the Eldridge Novelty and Electrical Carnival Company will entertain. The committee decided to have two numbers February. As announced, Farland, the banjoist, will be one of the attractions for that month, and the other will be the Metropolitan Concert Company, which Mr. Diggs thinks will possibly be the best number of the whole course. Getting this attraction will add $50 to the cost of the course. The canvass for the sale of season tickets will begin just as soon as the committee hears from the concert company.

DROPPED DEAD.

Mr. A. Moore, a Well Known Tobacco Salesman of Fayetteville.

[Special Star Telegram.]

PILOT MOUNTAIN, N. C., Sept. 6.—Mr. A. Moore, a well known tobacco salesman, of Fayetteville, N. C., fell dead in Redman & Brother's factory here to-day. Special train will bring his family and friends up at 9 P. M. The remains will be taken to Fayetteville for interment. Cause of death, heart failure.

The funeral will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Hill, of Maxton to-morrow.

Mass Meeting Tuesday Night.

President Frank of the Y. M. C. A. has issued notices to all associate members and contributors to the Association, urging them to attend the big Association mass meeting to be held next Tuesday night. He says the welfare of the Association is to be considered, no money is to be raised and no programme will be arranged. Every man who attends will speak as he pleases—to criticise, praise or advise. Especial criticisms of the employment bureau, insurance fund, school, star course, membership matters, swimming pool, religious work, etc.

Railway Postal Clerks.

Mr. H. D. Burkhimer, one of the railway postal clerks attending the convention in Atlanta, kindly sent the STAR a programme of the four days of the convention. Judging from it the clerks are having a good time. The programme includes theatre parties, old fashioned Georgia barbecues on Stone Mountain, reception by Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Terrell, trolley parties, excursion to Chattanooga and a visit to Lookout Mountain.

Bellamy at Pireway.

John D. Bellamy, the white man's Democratic candidate for Congress in this district, will address the people at Pireway, Columbus county, Wednesday next, Sept. 7th. He will discuss the great issues of the day, chief among which in North Carolina is the supremacy of the white race. As Pireway is almost on the line between Columbus and Brunswick a large attendance is expected from both counties.

LOOK TO THE LEGISLATURE.

We may desire reform in North Carolina, we may talk for reform and we may work for reform, but we can have no reform unless we elect a Legislature which will give us reform. What we want and what we must have is a Legislature which will be as near the opposite of the last Legislature as one Legislative body can be of another, a Legislature composed not only of men of intelligence and honesty, but of men who have patriotism enough in them to think and work for the good of North Carolina and not simply to make their party stronger and to promote their own individual interests, to the detriment of the State.

The last Legislature made itself notorious and infamous; notorious for its incompetency and infamous for the disregard of common decency in its shameful bartering for offices and its betrayal of the trust reposed in it, for the gain that came from the betrayal. This is not a charge resting on Democratic accusation only, but on accusations made by papers which are mouthpieces of one of the parties which constituted the majority in that Legislature, which is responsible for the disreputable and revolutionary work done by it, and for the degrading demoralization that characterized it from the beginning to the end.

Yesterday we produced some extracts from the Raleigh Caucasian, of which the Chairman of the Populist State committee is one of the editors, in which we had some pen sketches of that discredited assembly. We herewith produce some more from the Progressive Farmer, which characterized that body as it then posed before the State, in some very plain and forcible English:

"Swepson is not the only boss our North Carolina Legislature ever had."

"To a man up a tree it appears that the Pops nominated some extremely sorry timber for the legislature last year."—Progressive Farmer, Jan. 26, 1897.

"Thus the people's money is being divided out to pay political reward. There is help for it now. But the tax payers of North Carolina will speak in thunder tones at the polls when there is another election. No party, no man has ever been able to run rough shod over the people of the State but a short time."—Progressive Farmer, Feb. 23, 1897.

"The Legislature only has about ten days now to complete the work, and it hasn't begun the work yet. Let the miserable pie hunters go to work or go home."—Progressive Farmer, Feb. 23, 1897.

"Let the investigation of the charges of bribery by pomises of patronage and money to influence votes for Pritchard proceed. Prichard's friends say the charge is not true. We believe that come of the charges are frue. Investigate or stand convicted."—Progressive Farmer.

"The good done by the Legislature could be printed in a small pamphlet. The bad done and the good omitted would fill several large volumes."—Progressive Farmer.

There is some talk of an extra session of the Legislature. Please don't Governor Russell. We can endure famine, pestilence, drought, war; but don't inflict any prolonged agony on the State such as an extra session."—Progressive Farmer, March 2, 1897.

Democratic papers have exposed and denounced the shameful proceedings of that body, but none of them ever contained sharper or more pithy criticisms than are embraced in these brief paragraphs. We take it for granted that the editor was honest when he wrote them and published them. Then he was not the beneficiary of the easy job with a comfortable salary which he afterwards became possessed of, and now holds. The paper which so sharply scored the derelicts then will now be found doing its most stalwart work to put another gang just like that in power, a gang chosen and supported by the same combination and the same influences that thrust that monstrosity upon the State.

A share in the spoils can hardly be expected to criticise the men to whom he is indebted for the share he gets, but the man who before getting office thus bluntly expresses his opinion of the body calling itself a Legislature discredits himself when, after getting office, he labors to fasten the same kind of a body upon the people. When he does that he simply advertises the fact that he is returning service for favors bestowed, and proving recreant to the people whom he professes to serve.

That was ostensibly a reform Legislature, which went into power to retrench and reduce expenses, but this Populist organ charges it with "dividing out the people's money to pay political reward." Prophetically it exclaims, "There is no help for it now. But the tax-payers of North Carolina will speak in thunder tones at the polls when there is another election. No party nor man has ever been able to run rough-shod over the people of a State but a short time."

Right the editor is in the prophecy and in the supplemental remark, both of which were based on experience. He doubtless remembered how the indignant people of this State rose up and swept out of existence the gang which under the name of the Legislature of 1868 held its saturnalia in Raleigh and made the name of a Republican Legislator the synonyme of thief and plunderer. They thought they had a strong grip and became audacious and reckless in their devilment but the people arose in their majestic might and a good many of those audacious plunderers found other parts more congenial and took the most direct route out of the State, after the ballots had been counted. Their party was crushed and remained crushed until it formed a combination with the Populist party which "breathed life into the dead hulk," and so the people whose patience has become exhausted will rise again and wipe out of existence the mongrel combine which is responsible for the monstrosity known as the last Legislature, which was worse in some respects than the Legislature of 1868.

WILL THEY OUST THE WHITE MAN?

During the days of reconstruction in this East the white bosses had the negroes so thoroughly organized and disciplined that they could blow a whistle at any time and get a meeting of them. Those were the days of the Union League, and the white bosses worked the League and the negroes for all they were worth.

We do not know whether the Union League survives, but we have abundant evidence that the negroes are pretty thoroughly organized, better, perhaps, than they have been since the days of reconstruction. They are showing more interest in politics, too, than they have at any time since then, and they are doing what they never did before, contending for recognition and supremacy on the color line. This is not local, not confined to one or two counties, or to one particular section, but is general wherever there are black voters enough to be a material factor in politics.

They are beginning to hold their nightly meetings, secret meetings to all intents and purposes, where they discuss politics and other things besides politics. A private letter from Newbern tells us of a meeting recently held in a neighboring county. It was held at night, in a school house, where a guard was placed to see that no one not wanted was permitted to enter. The people composing the meeting were all negroes. They were addressed by a leading negro, who didn't confine himself to the color line in politics, but took a broader sweep and told his hearers that the day was coming when they would not only be the dominant political power in Eastern North Carolina, but would be the possessors of the lands and the farms of the white men.

And this is how it is to be accomplished. He for one, he said, was disposed to treat the white man "right," and proposed to proceed thus, to buy the white man's land and stock and secure him by mortgage, making annual payments, or to lease, but if the white owners were neither willing to sell on these terms, or to lease, then make it so hot for them that they will be compelled to sell or lease, or let their lands grow up in wilderness.

It might be said that this man was talking simply or himself, and that he did not fairly represent his race, but however that may be, what he proposes would be the logical result of negro domination, for the race that rules will be the race that in time will own the lands. Bad rule, with the negro strutting in arrogance, would make life intolerable to the white man and he would be either driven by desperation to resist it or to dispose of his property as best he could, and seek a home where life would be less burdensome.

This negro speaker may be regarded as extreme, but that is what it is coming to in the negro-ruled section if this thing continues.

LET THE WEST HEED.

The people of the Central and Western counties of North Carolina have not felt much alarm at the strides that negro rule is making in the East because the negroes are in the minority there; they are less assertive, less aggressive, and the white people do not come into such frequent and direct contact with them. There is a disposition also among white Republicans to regard the representations as to the condition of the East as exaggerated for political purposes. But no honest, intelligent man who visits the Eastern section of the State, especially those counties where the negroes are in the majority, and keeps his eyes and ears open, will go back to his home and say that there has been aught of exaggeration as to the unhappy condition of the negro-ridden East. This condition is attested by our best, most thoughtful and truthful people, people who are not politicians, but who realize the deplorable condition in which the Eastern portion of the State has been placed by pandering to the negro and putting him on top. Rev. Jesse H. Page, Methodist minister at Rockingham, Richmond county, is one of these, and he, in a letter to a friend in Newton, Catawba county, which we find in the Enterprise, speaks thus feelingly and forcibly about the present and prospective condition of the State, if this negro rule is to continue:

ROCKINGHAM, N. C., Aug. 29, '98.

My Dear Sir and Brother:

I was from home when your favor came. I have time to reply briefly. The reports of the dreadful results of the reign of the vilest characters in some of the Eastern counties, are not exaggerated. Indeed, the "half has not been told" I am sure if the honest white men of the central and western portion of our good old State would come East and see for themselves they would return home with the resolution, every one of them, to work and vote to help throw off the yoke that is so oppressive and humiliating to the white men and white women in the Eastern counties.

Things must change very soon or some portions of our beloved State will be reduced to degradation, poverty and ruin. The good people of this section are making a determined effort, and scores of white men who had strayed off into the fusion combine are coming back to the anglo-saxon banner and will vote for honest government. Let the West heed the earnest, honest, appeals of their brethren in the East, and all will be well

Truly,

JESSE H. PAGE.

The white men of the Centre and the West are beginning to wake up to the danger that threatens them, for the blight of negro rule cannot destroy us without affecting them. The negro who controls New Hanover, or Craven, or Halifax, has much to do with controlling Catawba, Burke or Buncombe, although he does not strut there so offensively or aggressively as he does here. He is the power behind the throne.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— High Point Enterprise: S. Ausband, who has had many years' experience with the diamond drill, and who has been working it in Virginia for several years, was kind enough this week to bring us samples of the product of the drill which were gotten at a depth of over 2,000 feet. One was a solid piece of marble, about three feet long and the size and shape of a broom handle. The drill only makes a hole in the ground about 2½ inches in diameter.

Charlotte News: Complaint of the damage to crops by the rain comes from every part of the county. Cotton is rotting badly and there are some reports of sprouting in the boll. Much of the corn in the lowlands is still under water, and there is complaint that some of the corn is souring in the ear. Mr. J. Watt Kirkpatrick brought to the News office to day a lot of bolls showing how his cotton crop had been injured by the bad weather. Many of the bolls are as badly decayed as any ever seen here. Mr. Kirkpatrick says he has no desire to exaggerate at all, but it is an actual fact that at least a fifth of his crop is ruined. Some farmers report an even larger percentage of loss. —— George W. Alexander, a Charlotte darkey, who was arrested in this city Friday, charged with selling whiskey to the negro soldiers at Fort Macon, made good his escape from the city tombs to-day at noon. Alexander selected this time because he knew that the day turn key went to dinner at 12 o'clock and no one would be in the office. He wrenched off a piece of lead piping that ran through his cell and with this bent the bars at the top of his cage and prizing a hole large enough for his body to get through, climbed over the tops of the cells to a sky-light and escaped by going through the main auditorium of the City Hall. Alexander was arrested at Beaufort for his crime. While the United States officer was en route to Newbern with him he jumped from the train while it was running at a lively rate. He came on to Charlotte and was picked up by Chief Orr last Friday.

POINTS POLITICAL.

QUIT IN DISGUST.

Mr. J. J. Cox, one of Lanes' Creek's good citizens, a heretofore Populist, has left the party with disgust. He sees where the thing has gone and he returns to his old home in the Democratic party to fight for good government.—Monroe Journal.

SCARED IN RANDOLPH.

The Republicans in this county are scared and are still whistling to keep up their courage. They talk about what we are going to do and how much majority they will have this year, and now and then you will find a half hearted Democrat who believes they think it. The Democrats have started with a determination to carry the county and elect every candidate on the ticket.—Asheboro Courier.

OPPOSED TO THE DICKER.

We have not heard a leading colored man of the county express himself otherwise than absolutely and determinedly opposed to the Rep.-Pop. fusion ticket nominated here last Saturday by the Populist county convention; and many of the leading white Republicans are outspoken in their opposition to it. It remains now to be seen whether the few white Republican officeholders of the county will whip the negroes—who do the voting—into line or not.—Goldsboro Argus.

DEMOCRATIC GAINS IN HARNETT.

From Buckhorn township comes the news that the Democrats are making gains in that township and that the gains there will be forty or more over the vote two years ago, when the Democrats only cast eighty votes for Governor. Now they have enrolled in the White Government Union one hundred and one registered voters. At this ratio of gain in all the townships we will defeat the fusion ticket with a good majority.—Dunn Union.

VOTED HIS LAST POPULIST TICKET.

The Messenger knows numbers of former Populists, in almost every section of the county, who have returned to the Democratic party, but it has not deemed it good taste to print their names, unless authorized to do so. In this connection we will say that J. A. Porter, a well known citizen of Burnsville township, was in town yesterday and authorized us to say that he had voted his last Populist ticket; that in the future he would vote with the white man's party. Mr. Porter also said that a number of his neighbors, who had been Populists, had returned to the Democratic party.—Wadesboro Messenger.

NO USE FOR A BOARD.

It has been established that Jim Young said in a meeting of the board of directors of the deaf, dumb and blind institution that "If the principal is going to run the institution then we have no use for a board of directors." Thus another fiction of the negro-workshippers falls to the ground. They have been telling every body that Young, while a member of the board, was the very model and pattern of propriety just as they have asserted that he never inspected the white institution. Jim Young is a negro, and like his race, becomes insolent the moment he is placed in office.—Raleigh News and Observer.

TWINKLINGS.

— "How is the young King getting along in his studies?" inquired one member of the Spanish cabinet. "Well," replied the other, "he doesn't seem to have nearly as much trouble with geography as we have."—Washington Star.

I was recently attending a patient whose husband came to see me concerning her condition, and greeted me with the words: "Mr. Irving do you think there is any need for any unnecessary anxiety about my wife?"—London Spectator.

— "Look at these manuscripts of mine that have been returned," growled the author. "That editor doesn't know a good thing when he sees it." But he probably knows a bad thing," suggested his friend, very quietly.—Punch.

— Aunt Gertrude—"And what will you do when you are a man, Tommy?" Tommy—"I'm going to grow a beard." Aunt Gertrude—"Why?" Tommy—"Because then I won't have nearly so much face to wash."—Pick-Me-Up.

— Insurance Agent—"We can't insure you." Old Man—"Why not?" Insurance Agent—"You are ninety-four years old." Old Man—"What of that? Statistics will tell you that fewer men die at ninety-four than at any other age."—Tit-Bits.

— "The Binkses must buy everything on the instalment plan." "What makes you think so?" "I heard Jimmy Binks ask his father whether their new baby would be taken away if they couldn't keep up the payments."—Chicago Record.

— Mistress—"Bridget, this is altogether too much; you have a new follower in the kitchen this week," Bridget (complainingly) — "Well, ma'am, you see the food in this house is so bad that no one will come here for longer than a week."—Punch

HE QUOTED, DIDN'T STEAL.

Professor Green's Frank Answer to a Charge of Plagiarism.

In these days of accusations of plagiarisms against clergymen the case of Cosmus Green, professor of the Latin tongue in Princeton college, is worthy of note. Professor Green preached only occasionally in term time, as he had much other work to do. One day he was summoned hastily to officiate in the place of a minister who had been suddenly taken ill. He had barely time to catch the train, much less to prepare an especial discourse. He caught up a half dozen manuscripts from the drawer in his library table and hurried away to preach in his sick brother's stead.

It was a good sermon. Every one was well pleased, every one indeed but an old Scotch gardener, who sat far to the rear shaking his head gravely from time to time.

"Aye, it was true gospel," he confided to a member of the congregation afterward, "and weel delivered, but I've heerd it before this on the ither side many years gone by."

His confidant was a lawyer and set about investigating. In a New York library he found a book of "Sermons by Scotch Divines," which contained the substance of the suspected sermon so far as he could recall it after having not paid especial heed to it when it was delivered.

The lawyer took a serious view of the case, and waiting until the presbytery met he presented the facts and argued that they warranted an investigation. The presbytery agreed and summoned Professor Green.

"Really, I don't recollect," said the professor to the investigating committee, "but if you'll send to the house for the sermon I may be able to clear the matter up."

The document was brought and read aloud while two committeemen watched the "Sermons of Scotch Divines." The manuscript and the printed page tallied exactly. Things looked dark for the professor of Latin.

When the reading was done, however, he said the whole story had come back to him clearly. He had left in a great hurry to meet the call and had not had time to select a sermon. Indeed he was not aware of the circumstances of his summons further than that he was wanted immediately. He had no time to inquire or to look over his manuscripts to select. He had "out and run."

"When I arrived at Dr. Blank's," he continued, "and had time to find out what the sermon was for and to look over the manuscripts I had taken with me, I found that only one of them was in the least appropriate—the one your honorable body has just heard read. It is a copy word for word which I made when I was a student here in the seminary. I was earning my way through then and at that particular time had to preach two sermons a week. Two were sometimes more than I had time to prepare, for I had much studying to do. If you will notice at the end of this manuscript, there are the date and the statement whence the words were taken and their author.

"I did not mention their source when I read them last spring because the author's name would not have given added weight thereto. Nor did I wish my hearers to infer I considered them hardly worthy an original and special effort. Had I been notified two days earlier I should have written especially for them to the best of my ability; as it was, it was by an accident due to necessary haste that I took the copied manuscript with me and an accident again that among the half dozen I took the copy was the only one at all appropriate."

The investigating committee exonerated Professor Cosmus Green.—New York Press.

Fun at Court.

One of the criminal court rooms in city hall consists of three rooms in telescopic succession, with a door leading from one to the other. Jurymen sit in the front room, but parties and witnesses are sent to the back room till called.

A juryman named O'Brien was sitting in the front room when a tipstaff went up to him and asked him if he was a juryman. Misunderstanding the word juryman for German, he said, "No; I am an Irishman," and was told to go into the back room. The crier of the court called him several times during the day, but he didn't hear the call, and when told he was in default he told the above story as his excuse.—Philadelphia Record.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL. A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23d, says: "We all had diarrhœa in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by R. R. BALLAMY. †

TURGENEFF ABHORS SPORT

How a Dying Pheasant Influenced His Whole Career.

The celebrated Russian novelist, Turgeneff, tells a most touching incident from his own life, which awakened in him sentiments that have colored all his writings with a deep and tender feeling.

When Turgeneff was a boy of 10, his father took him out one day bird shooting. As they tramped across the brown stubble a golden pheasant rose with a low whir from the ground at his feet, and with the joy of a sportsman throbbing his veins he raised his gun and fired, wild with excitement, when the creature fell fluttering at his side. Life was ebbing fast, but the instinct of the mother was stronger than death itself, and with a feeble flutter of her wings the mother bird reached the nest where her young brood were huddled, unconscious of danger. Then, with such a look of pleading and reproach that his heart stood still at the ruin he had wrought, and never to his dying day did he forget the feeling of cruelty and guilt that came to him in that moment, the little brown head toppled over, and only the dead body of the mother shielded her nestlings.

"Father, father," he cried, "what have I done?" as he turned his horror stricken face to his father. But not to his father's eye had this little tragedy been enacted, and he said: "Well done, my son. That was well done for your first shot. You will soon be a fine sportsman."

"Never, father, never again shall I destroy any living creature. If that is sport, I will have none of it. Life is more beautiful to me than death, and since I cannot give life I will not take it."—Atlanta Constitution.

The Changing Leaves.

It is one of the marvels of trees that every species bears its own mark in every part, root and branch, bark and leaf, as well as fruit. A wise elder told us the other day the species of oak from which an acorn came by the fine tracery on the acorn's cup. Such a riot of colors and tints there is in the falling leaves that one might think the colors are accidental, but the keynote of color is constant in any species, with only exceptional variations.

The mistress of a manse in the Virginia valley once went into the woods and selected her young trees by their colors, and those colors they still wave in each returning fall. The birches are a golden yellow, while the oaks vary through yellow orange to a reddish brown. The red maple sheds at the last a dark red leaf and the tulip tree a light yellow. The hawthorn and the poison oak are violet, while the sumac and the wild vines take on a flaming scarlet. Soil will make some variations, and a dry season will almost take the color and beauty altogether away.—Richmond Central Presbyterian.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, September 6.—After opening steady and prices unchanged to two points above the closing figure of Saturday, the cotton market ruled inactive, working within narrow limits and showing decided apathy on the part of outside speculators. At the close the market was quiet at unchanged prices to one point lower. Following the opening call prices yielded 2@4 points, but the downward movement was checked by the official announcement of yellow fever at several points in the Mississippi valley. Some local traders covered on fears of an extension of the disease to the disadvantage of picking and marketing the crop. The volume of trading was unusually light.

PLAGUE OF LEGISLATORS.

Why Some of the States Once Had Two Capitals.

Baton Rouge freely translated means red stick. That is the limit of my understanding of the affair, however. It is a quaint old town, consisting chiefly of river. When I studied geography several decades ago, I knew that Louisiana had two capitals, one at New Orleans and the other at Baton Rouge. They have got tired of entertaining legislators at New Orleans of late years and have unloaded the whole job upon the smaller and more nearly defenseless city.

Looking back to those old days, I recall that Louisiana was one of the very few states which required two vents for their legislatures. Connecticut was one, with Hartford and New Haven as capitals, and Rhode Island, the smallest of states, was another, with Providence and Newport. Of late years there has been a sort of centralization of capitals. The fashion of having one at every enterprising city in a state has fallen into disuse. You might tramp all over any of the states nowadays and not run the risk of blundering into a legislature in full blast where it might have been least expected. I asked the Pocatello man what he thought was the reason for the wealth of capitals in earlier times.

"In those days," he said, "the states were young and tender and had not fully developed their muscle and their power of resisting great assaults. It was therefore to distribute the evil of a legislature sitting over a great deal of country so as not to give any particular city the worst of it. As time went on and a town showed especial hardihood and ability to stand great calamity the legislature was switched upon it as a perpetual and permanent institution. New Orleans and Newport and other towns which in other days were capitals had the good luck to draw two aces and to win out, sending the legislature in the one instance to Baton Rouge and in the other to Providence. It takes a game town to stand a persistent plague of legislature."—Chicago Record.

COLOR IN FLAGS.

Red Predominates Largely In the Standards of the Chief Nations.

Though the policy of military authorities in using less glaring colors in uniforms has been very marked of late years red remains the most popular color for national standards. Of 25 countries 19 have flags with red in them, the list including the United States, England, France, Germany, Austria, Italy, Spain, Denmark, Belgium, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, Mexico, Chile, Portugal, Venezuela and Cuba.

The countries which have blue as an element of their flags are the United States, Russia, France, England, Holland, Ecuador, Sweden, Chile, Venezuela, Portugal and Cuba. Three countries have black as one of the elements of their flags, Germany, Belgium and China, but Germany is the only one of three which has black and white together.

There are five countries (excluding from consideration Ireland, the familiar flag of which is not officially recognized among the national standards) which have green as a color; Brazil, the flag of which is green chiefly; Mexico, Egypt, Italy and Persia. There are nine countries in which the flag is partly of yellow. These countries are Austria, Spain, Belgium, Egypt, Sweden, China, Persia, Brazil and Venezuela. Countries with flags partly white are the United States, France, Germany, Russia, Austria and Italy, six of the seven chief powers.

There is no white in the national standard of England, but the British naval flag has a white background. Other countries having white in their flags are Switzerland, Turkey, Persia, Japan, Mexico, Holland, Denmark, Portugal, Cuba, Chile and Ecuador, the flag of which is nearer white than any other country, being made up of two parallel white columns, between which is a column of blue, upon which are white stars.—New York Sun.

The Poor Poet.

"The return of contributions will be expedited if a stamped envelope is inclosed," read the poet sardonically from the printed slip which accompanied his rejected manuscript. "Great Scott! Who wants to expedite their return? I'm sure mine couldn't come back any faster than they do if I had a private carrier pigeon express." And he gloomily tucked the five sonnets, the ballade and the rondeau into a fresh envelope and sent them off on their nineteenth round.—New York Tribune.

Her Lucky Day.

A North Carolina paper says:

"A negro struck his wife two terrible blows on the head with an ax. The negro escaped to the woods, and his wife soon revived and said: 'I mighty glad he done it, kase now he'll stay cl'ar er de neighborhood en I won't have ter suppo't him no mo'. It wuz a lucky day fer me w'en he hit me wid dat ax!'"

Very few of us are as thankful as that for these little blessings in disguise.—Atlanta Constitution.

A HORRID SLANDER.

The Most Infamous That Ever Appeared in Print in This State.

The Alarmed Politicians are Trying to Break the Force of it by Resorting to Various Dodges, But They are Too Thin.

The infamous assault on the white women of this State which appeared on the 18th of August in the Daily Record, the negro paper published in this city, has aroused a storm of indignation from one end of the State to the other. We have received so many requests for copies of the STAR containing this article that we herewith reproduce it in full, the accuracy of which is certified to by Col. John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, and by a number of our well-known business men. The article is headed:

Mrs. Felton's Speech.

"A Mrs. Felton, from Georgia, makes a speech before the Agricultural Society at Tybee, Ga., in which she advocates lynching as an extreme measure. This woman makes a strong plea for wamanhood, and if the alleged crimes or rape were half so frequent as is ofttimes reported, her plea would be worthy of consideration.

"Mrs. Felton, like many other so-called Christians, loses sight of the basic principle of the religion of Christ in her plea for one class of people as against another. If a missionary spirit is essential for the uplifting of the poor white girls, why is it? The The morals of the poor white people are on a par with their colored neighbors of like conditions, and if any one doubts the statement let him visit among them. The whole lump needs to be leavened by those who profess so much religion and showing them that the preservation of virtue is an essential for the life ot any people.

"Mrs. Felton begins well for she admits that education will better protect the girls on the farm from the assaulter. This we admit and it should not be confined to the white any more than to the colored girls. The papers are filled often with reports of rapes of white women, and the subsequent lynching of the alleged rapists. The editors pour forth volleys of aspersions against all negroes because of the few who may be guilty. If the papers and speakers of the other race would condemn the commission of crime because it is crime and not try to make it appear that the negroes were the only criminals, they would find their strongest allies in the intelligent negroes themselves, and together the whites and blacks would root the evil out of both races.

"We suggest that the whites guard their women more closely, as Mrs. Felton says, thus giving no opportunity for the human fiend, be he white or black. You leave your goods out of doors and then complain because they are taken away. Poor white men are careless in the matter of protecting their women, especially on farms. They are careless of their conduct toward them and our experience among poor white people in the country teaches us that the women of that race are not any more particular in the matter of clandestine meetings with colored men, than are the white men with colored women. Meetings of this kind go on for some time until the woman's infatuation or the man's boldness, bring attention to them and the man is lynched for rape. Every negro lynched is called a 'big, burly, black brute,' when in fact many of those who have thus been dealt with had white men for their fathers, and were not only not 'black' and 'burly' but were sufficiently attractive for white girls of culture and refinement to fall in love with them as is well known to all."

"Mrs. Felton must begin at the fountain head if she wishes to purify the stream.

"Teach your men purity. Let virtue be something more than an excuse for them to intimidate and torture a helpless people. Tell your men that it is no worse for a black man to be intimate with a white woman, than for a white man to be intimate with a colored woman.

You set yourselves down as a lot of carping hypocrites; in fact you cry aloud for the virtue of your women while you seek to destroy the morality of ours. Don't think ever that your women will remain pure while you are debauching ours. You sow the seed—the harvest will come in due time."

THE AFFIDAVIT OF THE CLERK.

An effort has been made by some of the politicians to fool the people by representing that this slander was a Democratic trick or was garbled, but the following affidavit from the Clerk of the Superior Court settles the question as to its accuracy:

NORTH CAROLINA,
NEW HANOVER COUNTY.

I, John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, do hereby certify that the foregoing is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record, a paper published in the city of Wilmington, of date Aug. 18, 1898.

"I further certify that said paper has been published in said city at least eight months prior to this date; that Alex. L. Manly, the editor, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has before this held the office of Deputy Register of Deeds of New Hanover county, by appointment from Charles W. Norwood, Republican Register of Deeds, of New Hanover county.

"I further certify that John N. Goins, business manager; L. D. Manly, foreman; Jno. T. Howe, general traveling agent; and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and are known as Republicans and the said Jno. T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897. Witness my hand and seal this August 24th, 1898. JOHN D. TAYLOR,
Clerk Superior Court of New Hanover Co.

Who Manly Is.

As the Republican politicians in this county could not call this assault a Democratic trick, or say it was garbled, they tried to break the force of it by repudiating the paper as a party organ and characterizing the editor as a "simpleton" who represents no one but himself. The following affidavit from a number of business men of Wilmington testifies to the accuracy of the published slander, tells who Manly and his associates on the Record are and shows that Manly was not regarded as a simpleton, or a nobody before he startled the bosses by the publication of that awful article:

CITIZENS TESTIFY.

B. G. Worth, of the Worth Co.; R. W. Hicks, wholesale grocer; C. E. Borden, president of Navassa Guano Co.; W. L. DeRosset, commander of N. C. Division Confederate Veterans, and John C. Springer, of the firm of W. E. Springer & Co., each being duly sworn says that he has read the foregoing paper, and that the said is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record of the date August 18th, 1898; that said paper, the Daily Record, has been published in the city of Wilmington at least eight months prior to this date, and Alex. L. Manly, the editor thereof, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has held the position of Deputy Register of Deeds in New Hanover county under the Republicans.

Affiants further say that John N. Goins, business manager, L. D. Manly, foreman, John T. Howe, general travelling agent, and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and Republicans, and the said John T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897.

BOILS

Carbuncles
RUNNING SORES

CURED BY USING

Botanic Blood Balm (B.B.B.)

The Great Blood Remedy.

In either boils or their more aggravated form of carbuncle it surely indicates a diseased condition of the blood, which should have prompt attention on the appearance of the first symptoms. Eat the best you can get, and freely use Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.). This medicine will scatter the boils and heal the diseased flesh in a few days. Mrs. W. J. Steed, of Augusta, Georgia, had boils for several years past, as well as a carbuncle over the right eye. This spring she felt the symptoms of boils coming on again. While sewing she would prick the skin with her needle. The little sores would fester. Her blood was in a terrible condition. She took two bottles of Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.), and was entirely cured, and she passed the spring without the annoying boils and possible return of a carbuncle. Her blood was relieved of poison matter by B. B. B., which is a powerful blood remedy. It is purely vegetable.

Running Sores or chronic ulcers are most frequently found on the leg. The real cause is in a diseased condition of the blood. Happily there is a cure in Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) Years ago Dr. Gillam used B. B. B. for running sores, and no case since ever failed to yield to its marvelous power. We have over 400 testimonials of successful cures from B. B. B. of running sores. We give one or two.

Walter Bridges, of Athens, Tenn., writes: "For six years I had been afflicted with running sores and an enlargement of the bone in my leg. I tried everything I heard of without any permanent benefit until Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) was recommended to me. After using six bottles the sores healed, and I am now in better health than I have ever been. I send this testimonial unsolicited, because I want others to be benefitted."

J. D. Watkins, Blakely, Ga., writes: "Old sores covered my entire person and itched intensely night and day. For several months I could not work at all. I commenced the use of Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) and began to grow better the first week, and am now sound and well, free from sores and itching, and at work again."

Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) is a scientific vegetable compound used by Dr. Gillam in his private practice for blood diseases, such as Old Sores, Scrofula, Boils, Blood Poison, etc. It cured so many people that it was put on the market, and is for sale by all druggists at $1 per large bottle, or 6 bottles sent, charges prepaid, on receipt of $5. It has always enjoyed a large sale because it even after everything else has been tried in vain. Books of cures sent free of charge.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.,
Nov. 12, 1897.

H. E. Thompson, Providential, N. C.:

DEAR SIR:—A month ago you sent me a box of the Jackson Springs Water—twelve bottles. You know how fearfully I was suffering with an acute bladder trouble some weeks before. When I reached home I found the water awaiting me. I have rested and drank that water. I am a new man—my old self practically; my appetite restored; and the tenderness in the bladder has disappeared. I think it is a wonderful water. I had been using for weeks before all sorts of lithia water, but the Jackson Springs Water went to the spot.

With profound gratitude, I am,

Yours, Respectfully, &c.,

CALVIN S. BLACKWELL.

The Doctor further says, it is "the best, I think, God has let run out of the earth for afflicted humanity."

This Water is unsurpassed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Insomnia, Nervous Prostration, or any Kidney, Bladder or Stomach Trouble.

WILMINGTON, N. C.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 7.

CONDITION OF THE CROPS.

Cotton Has Suffered Seriously, Especially in Georgia and the Carolinas.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 6.—The weekly bulletin of the Agricultural Department is as follows:

The abnormally high temperatures throughout the week have been favorable for maturing crops; more particularly over the central and northern portions of the country from the Mississippi valley eastward, while in Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota and portions of Missouri hot winds have proved injurious. In the central and western Gulf States the week has also been generally favorable, but in the South Atlantic and portions of the East Gulf States excessive heavy rains have caused much damage. On the Pacific coast the conditions have been favorable.

Corn has made rapid progress toward maturity under the abnormally high temperature conditions, a large part of the crop in States where it is unusally exposed to danger from frosts being now safe, and the remainder will mature earlier than usual. Late corn has been seriously injured by hot winds in South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri, while heavy rains have caused rotting and sprouting in the South Atlantic and Gulf States.

Cotton has suffered seriously from rust, shedding and insects over the eastern portion of the cotton belt, from which sections numerous reports of rotting and sprouting are also received, especially in Georgia and the Carolinas, where the rainfall has been exceptionally heavy. In Louisiana and Texas reports of shedding and damage by insects are less numerous than in the preceding week. In the last named State rain is needed for late cotton and the top-crop. Cotton is opening rapidly in all districts, and picking is progressing favorably over the central and western portions, but has been retarded by rains in portions of the eastern section.

Most of the early tobacco has been cut and housed under favorable conditions, and the late crop is generally promising.

YELLOW FEVER SITUATION.

State of Alabama Quarantined Against New Orleans—Memphis Allows No Passengers to Stop There.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MEMPHIS, TENN., September 6.—As announced Sunday night, Memphis has quarantined against the world. That is, no passengers will be allowed to leave trains there, though they may pass through if so ticketed in closed coaches. Freight moves as usual.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., September 6. —The State of Alabama has put on quarantine against New Orleans but not against Jackson, Miss.

NEW ORLEANS, September 6.—Two suspicious cases of fever are announced near Meridian, by Dr. Sully, of the Mississippi board of health. An expert has been sent to investigate. Meridian has temporarily quarantined New Orleans. The Louisiana board of health has not yet issued any report on the suspicious case of fever which was under investigation yesterday and as to which Dr. Carter reserved his opinion. At the office of the board it was announced that the case was convalescent and therefore difficult to diagnose. No other cases are under investigation at present.

Thirty-five Cases at Orwood.

WASHINGTON, September 6.—A report received by the Marine Hospital Service from Surgeon H. R. Carter shows that the total number of yellow fever cases which have made their appearance at Orwood, Miss., is thirty-five, but up to this time there have been no deaths. The disease has been traced, according to Surgeon Carter, from Orwood to Taylor, a small town on the Illinois Central Railroad, in Northern Mississippi, where five cases were reported on July the 20th. The disease is of a very mild type, like that on the Mississippi coast last year, and no danger is apprehended by the officials that it will become serious in character.

SPANISH PRISONERS.

Arrangements Perfected for Transfer of Admiral Cervera and His Men to New York.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NORFOLK, VA., September 6.—Admiral Cervera, his son, and Lieutenant Gomez, both on his staff, arrived this morning and visited the Spanish sailors in the naval hospital. They afterwards called upon Commodore Farquhar at the navy yard, and, returning to the city, were entertained at the Virginia Club by Mr. Arthur C. Humphrey, late Spanish vice consul. While at the club Lieutenant Cervera was taken suddenly ill and a physician was called to his assistance. He subsequently recovered.

While here the admiral perfected arrangements for the transportation of his men to New York via the Old Dominion Steamship Line to-morrow.

The admiral was warm in his expression of thanks to Commodore Farquhar and Dr. Cleburne, medical director of the hospital, and Mr. Humphreys, for kindness to his men. He left to-night for Washington to thank Secretary Long personally for courtesies and kindnesses. From Washington he will go to New York via the Royal Blue Line to-morrow afternoon.

NEW YORK, Sept 6.—The arrangements for the chartering of the steamer City of Rome by Captain Eulate of the Spanish navy have been completed. The City of Rome will take on 100 Spanish officers and thirteen hundred men. If possible the steamship will leave Friday for Portsmouth, N. H., where the men will be embarked for Santander, Spain.

MUSSULMANS AND CHRISTIANS.

Another Outbreak of the Troubles in Candia, on the Island of Crete.

MANY PEOPLE WERE KILLED.

British Troops and a Warship Fire on the Mussulmans—Part of the City in Flames—Attempt to Install Officials Caused Trouble

By Cable to the Morning Star

CANDIA, ISLAND OF CRETE, September 6.—Candia is in a state of anarchy. A collision between the Mussulmans, who were demonstrating against European control, and the British authorities who have been installing Christians as revenue officials, culminated to-day in bloody fighting between the Mussulmans and the British troops.

Riots occurred in various parts of the city and many were killed. When the outbreak was fiercest, a warship stationed in the harbor began firing shells, with the result that a portion of the city is in flames. The greatest confusion and uproar prevails and it is feared that the night will not pass without further pillage and destruction.

The trouble began with the attempt of the British military authorities to install Christian officials. They had appointed a council of internal control to administer the tithe revenue and a detachment of soldiers was stationed outside the office as a precaution. A crowd of unarmed Mussulmans, who had been demonstrating against the Christians, attempted to force an entrance into the office. The British soldiers fired and wounded several. The Mussulmans ran for their arms and returning attacked the soldiers. Other Mussulmans spread rapidly through the Christian quarter, shooting into windows and setting many houses and shops on fire.

It is reported that the British consul has been killed.

CANEA, September 6, via Paris.—Four warships have started for Candia, where it is reported three English persons have been killed and four wounded, and six Mussulmans killed.

Special precautions are being taken here and at Retimo; troops being held in readiness.

The fighting has ceased at Candia, but the fires continue.

CANEA, September 6.—The Turks set fire to the whole town of Candia.

The only warship there at the time of the outbreak was the British gunboat Hazard, which landed a party of marines to assist the one hundred and thirty British troops there.

BRUTAL MURDERS.

Father and Son Riddled With Bullets. The Murderer Shot and Killed by a Sheriff's Posse

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PETERSBURG, VA., September 6.—Last Monday J. B. Schmidt shot and killed Edward Hoffman and son, John T. Hoffman, lumbermen from Buckingham county, operating on Schmidt's place on James river, in Surry county. Schmidt went to the Hoffman's mill and deliberately shot young Hoffman seven times with a Winchester rifle in the presence of his father, killing him instantly, and then turned upon the father, who piteously begged for his life, and shot him repeatedly until he was dead. A posse was sent to arrest Schmidt, but he refused to surrender and was shot through the heart. He lingered until a late hour last night, when he died of his wounds, cursing at every breath. The remains of the Hoffmans were sent to their home to-day. They came to this State from Washington, D. C.

Schmidt was a member of the Louisiana Tigers during the war and was considered the finest rifle-shot in this section. He leaves a family. The trouble grew out of a business transaction involving the payment of money for lumber.

ANGLO-GERMAN AGREEMENT.

It is Yet Incomplete—Relates Generally to Interests in China and Africa.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, September 6.—The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon says it has complete confirmation of the existence of an Anglo-German agreement, which is mainly commercial, but the paper adds, provides a basis for the adjustment of all differences regarding territorial questions in all parts of the world.

The Gazette also publishes alleged details of the agreement said to have been arrived at between Great Britian and Germany, but they were not cabled to the Associated Press as the officials of the foreign office here said they were far beyond the truth. The foreign office officials added that the agreement is yet incomplete. It relates generally to Anglo-German interests in China, Africa and elsewhere, but it is not precise in its stipulations.

AT SAN JUAN DE PORTO RICO.

Arrival of U. S. Commissioners Admiral Schley and General Gordon.

THE SPANISH FLAG SALUTED.

Admiral Schley Given an Enthusiastic Reception—Postal Commission, Surgeon and Nurses also Arrive. Banks to be Established.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

SAN JUAN DE PORTO RICO, September 6.—The United States transport Seneca, carrying Rear Admiral W. S. Schley and Brigadier General W. W. Gordon, of the Porto Rico military commission, arrived off the harbor last night, but did not enter until this morning.

The United States protected cruiser New Orleans, which is lying in the harbor, fired an admiral's salute of thirteen guns. The Spanish gunboat Isabel Segunda responded with thirteen guns, whereupon the New Orleans set the Spanish flag at the peak and saluted it with thirteen guns.

A boat immediately put off from the New Orleans to the Seneca and took Admiral Schley aboard. As he went over the steamer's side her passengers, among whom he had become exceedingly popular, gave three cheers and a "tiger." One man, in his enthusiasm, yelled: "Hurrah for the next President." Admiral Schley was given an enthusiastic reception on board the New Orleans

The Seneca brought also the postal commission, thirty nurses and six contract surgeons. There are thirteen postal clerks with the commission, for the various stations. The commissioners will make an investigation into the postal system of the island and report to Washington.

Banks to be Established.

F. Dumaresqu, J. D. H. Luce and W. H. Lathrop, representing the Boston firm of DeFord & Co., which has been appointed the government's fiscal agent in Porto Rico, will establish banks at San Juan and Ponce. They believe the United States government will eventually retire the Porto Rican currency, which the local banks are trying to maintain close to par at an arbitrary price. It is valued approximately at a million dollars.

The Seneca proceeds to Ponce this afternoon. Paymaster Arthur, who is on board, has a million dollars for the troops.

Major General Brooke.

Major General John R. Brooke, the American commander, arrived safely at Rio Piedras yesterday. Colonel Pino, the local Spanish commander at Rio Piedras, rode to the outskirts of the town and greeted General Brooke in behalf of Captain General Macias. Colonel Pino after having been introduced to General Brooke's staff, escorted the party to General Macias' Summer residence, which has been placed at the American commander's disposal. The house is a pretentious dwelling, facing the plaza.

Quarters for the staff of General Brooke will be found to-morrow in another house.

General Brooke who is out-ranked by General Macias, the latter being a lieutenant general, will call upon the captain-general at the palace and pay him an official visit of courtesy.

When the admiral's pennant was raised on board the New Orleans, the marines paraded and the band played. Shortly before noon the Spanish Brigadier General Vallarino made an official visit to Admiral Schley and was saluted with seven guns.

During the afternoon Admiral Schley and General Gordon came ashore and took up their quarters at the Hotel Ingleterra, where they will remain during the sessions of the military commission. They walked from the quay to the hotel, attracting much attention. The Spanish sailors and soldiers who throng the city seemed specially curious to see the man who destroyed Cervera's fleet. The only guard for the party consisted of three policemen, but even these were unnecessary, as there was no hostile demonstration whatever.

About 4 o'clock General Brooke arrived from his headquarters at Rio Piedras, and the three commissioners, all of whom are outranked by Captain General Macias, made a call of courtesy upon him.

Spain Expects Compensation.

The United States commissioners desire to dispatch their work as soon as possible, but they have no idea of the time it will require. Everything depends upon the attitude of the Spanish commissioners. All appears clear sailing to General Brooke and his colleagues, but it is reported that the Spanish commissioners expect considerable compensation for the Spanish property to be relinquished, Their instructions were received yesterday by the steamer Ciudad de Cadiz. One of the commissioners is said to have remarked to Admiral Schley that he was anxious to leave for Spain and that, if he had his way, the proceedings would terminate so that he could go in a week.

SITUATION AT SANTIAGO.

Death Rate Has Decreased—No Yellow Fever—Spanish Prisoners Sent Home Six Thousand Still to Go.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, September 6.—The United States transport Vigilancia sailed to-day for Montauk Point with one hundred and forty convalescents, representing various regiments.

Only forty-five sick men of the Fifth Army Corps now remain. Eleven of these are down with yellow fever at Siboney. The others are in the city hospitals, suffering from typhoid fever, malaria, calentura and dysentery. Arrangements are being made to send them home as soon as they are able to move. Probably they will go on the Seguranca toward the end of this week. The death rate in the city has greatly decreased. There is no yellow fever in Santiago, and very little typhoid fever, calentura or dysentery. General Wood believes he will be able to ward off the usual September epidemic. Three thousand Spanish prisoners have been shipped from Guantanamo this week, two thousand from Leon and one thousand from San Ignacio. Only about six thousand are left, and these will be shipped rapidly to Spain.

POPULIST PARTY IN CONVENTION.

Middle-of-the-Road Men Adopt Platform and Nominate Candidates for 1900.

DENOUNCE SENATOR BUTLER.

The Smallest National Convention on Record and the Longest Platform—The Butler Faction Bolted—Barker and Donnelly Nominees.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 6.—The middle-of the road Populists to-day re-organized the People's Party, renewed its former declaration of principles and nominated its national ticket two years and two months in advance of the date of the election.

The object of this early action was to hold off any such fusion as that of 1896. While the radicals controlled the convention they could not carry out their programme without a bolt from the Northern delegates. The Western and the Southern delegates nominated Wharton Barker and Ignatius Donnelly and declared the principles of the re-organized party. The Eastern States were not represented.

It was the smallest national convention on record and it adopted the longest platform on record, one of over 7,000 words. Most of the usual rules of conventions were ignored, as most of the delegates came with self-constituted credentials, owing to the confusion over the call. It was a very noisy convention and no connected report of the proceedings will ever be recorded. While the People's Party was heretofore divided on the issue of fusion, it has now been found that even the anti fusionists are badly divided and that the fighting among the middle-of-the-roaders themselves has just begun.

Butler Denounced.

An elaborate address to the people of the United States was also adopted. It re-affirms the previous platform of the Populists and covers many additional questions and in referring to the present situation says: "The Peoples Party vote in 1894 and 1896 rose to nearly two millions and everything pointed to its speedy national triumph. In this emergency the Democratic party saw that it had no recourse but to steal one of the principles of the despised Populists. Senator Butler, who is the chairman of our national committee, preached disintregation and demoralization just as Benedict Arnold stipulated for the American forces, that the British might more readily overthrow the young republic."

"Mr. Butler taught our forces that the first duty of a soldier was to break ranks and go over to the enemy. All efforts to chain the boundless subtlety of this cunning man have been in vain. Our chief battle is not against the demonetization of one metal for the benefit of another, but against the chaining of the world's progress to the car-wheels of prehistoric superstition in the shape of both metals. The whole world to-day is held in check by a system of gold barter, while enterprise languishes, industry suffers and the cemeteries are populous with the bodies of bankrupts and suicides. We will end the tricks of the office-seekers by putting our national ticket in the field at once. We have nothing but kind words for Republicans and Democrats individually. While we demand that if either gold or silver is to be used as money, both shall be so used, we insist that the best currency this country ever possessed was the full legal tender greenback of the civil war."

Previous to the adoption of the address, Footer, of Minnesota, created a scene by his bitter objection, and was hissed down as were others of the Butler faction. A bitter discussion then followed on a motion to proceed with nominations for president and vice president. The Butler faction moved to amend by referring the whole matter to their national committee. This caused great disturbance, and the Butler men were knocked out.

Joseph Palmer of Illinois, then called the Butler faction together in another part of the hall and it was announced that they would bolt and leave the hall if the motion to proceed with the nominations prevailed, and such action was taken when there had been no regular call and when only a portion of the States and Territories were represented. There was a scene of confusion and commotion, which was finally quelled by Mrs. Walker, of Illinois, taking the platform and addressing the convention in the interest of order and harmony.

The Nominations.

After several nominating and seconding speeches in presenting the names of the candidates for respective offices, the ballot was taken as follows: Wharton Barker, of Pennsylvania, 128 4-5; Ignatius Donnelly, of Minnesota, 99 1-5. On motion of Mr. Donnelly the nomination of Mr. Barker was made unanimous. Ignatius Donnelly was then nominated by acclamation for vice president.

The Platform.

A very long platform was adopted, which incorporated the provisions of the Omaha platform as well as the address adopted at the morning session. The declarations in the platform do not differ from those of other platforms, except in the plank which especially denounces Senator Marion Butler of North Carolina, as chairman of their national committee for attempting "to drive the Populist party into the Democratic organization."

The resolution also provides for the reorganization of the party with Milton Park, of Dallas, Texas, as chairman.

The bolting delegates said they were instructed not to participate in the nomination of a ticket. The convention adjourned without fixing any time or place for another convention, and they consider their campaign for 1900 now opened.

IN A DRUG STORE.

Sudden Death of Mrs. Boyleston, of Jacksonville, Florida, in New York.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Mrs. Frank Boyleston, of Jacksonville, Fla., wife of a Florida passenger agent of the Atlantic Coast Line, died suddenly in a drug store on Broadway to-day. She staggered into the drug store, and in a choking voice cried to the soda-fountain clerk: "For God's sake give me some ammonia, quickly."

The woman's face was as white as death, and she seemed to be in agony. The clerk told her to go to the rear of the store. She staggered toward some seats, and when almost there fell unconscious into the arms of a physician, who was in attendance at the store. Three minutes afterwards the woman was dead. It is said that Mrs. Boyleston had been an invalid for some time and had just returned to New York from the White Mountains.

THIRTY MEN KILLED BY FALL OF A BRIDGE.

Collapse of a Railroad Structure Across the St. Lawrence River Near Hogansburg, N. Y.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

HOGANSBURG, N. Y., September 6.—About noon to-day two south spans of the international bridge of the New York and Ottowa railroad, now under construction across the St. Lawrence river, about three miles above St. Regis, an Indian village fell without warning with sixty men at work on the bridge, all being thrown into the river, some sixty feet below. Over thirty were picked up and taken to Cornwall hospital, and twenty-seven are now missing. The bridge consists of three spans, of which two were completed and the third was nearly completed, when the south pier gave way at its foundation, causing both spans to fall into sixty feet of water, taking its load of human freight with it. The names of the killed and drowned cannot at present be ascertained.

The scene of the accident is located about four miles from Hogansburg above the St. Regis Indian reservation. The bridge that gave way was being built across the St. Lawrence river at the foot of Long Saulte rapids, near Reinhardt's island. The water at this point is known to be as swift as in any part of the river. The immediate cause of the disaster and the giving way of the span of the bridge seems to have been from the washing away of one of the large piers.

Late reports from Cornwall hospital say thirty-three men have been taken out of the river and transferred to the hospital. Eighteen of them have since died.

The latest information concerning to-day's tragedy makes it probable that the death list will reach thirty. Many of the men are terribly injured.

As far as can be learned eighty-two men reported for work this morning. Of this list only thirty-eight have actually been accounted for.

THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

Native Leaders Favor Annexation—Dewey Denies Reports of Cruel Treatment of Spaniards.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MANILA, September 6.—At a meeting yesterday of twenty leaders of the Filipinos of all sections, called to discuss the policy of these islands, eighteen of them were emphatically in favor of outright annexation to the United States and two were in favor of a republic. The general native opinion is that it is best to adopt United States Consul Williams' suggestion and offer liberal inducements to the independence factions to co-operate, and to reward the services rendered.

The United States cruisers Olympia and Raleigh returned here from Hong Kong to-day.

WASHINGTON, September 6.—Admiral Dewey was recently called upon to investigate reports that the Spanish prisoners taken by the insurgents in the Philippines were subjected to cruel treatment. A cable message was received from Admiral Dewey today saying that the story probably originated from the fact that insurgents were unable to meet the wants of the sick Spanish prisoners, owing to a lack of physicians and medical supplies. He said he had been unable to find any proof of acts of cruelty on the part of the insurgents.

ADMIRAL DEWEY'S SQUADRON

All the Ships Will Soon be in First Class Condition—None of the Spanish Warships Likely to be Raised.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 6.—A report from Constructor Capps, at Manila, just received here, states that aside from the small gunboats which have been raised and put into the service of Admiral Dewey, none of the Spanish ships of war engaged in the battle of Manila Bay is likely to be raised. Mr. Capps was sent to the Asiatic station especially to assist in putting the squadron in first class condition for any emergency. Already the flagship Olympia and the gunboat Raleigh have been docked and cleaned at Hong Kong and the Boston arrived there last Saturday for the same purpose. Within the course of a few weeks, at the outside, Admiral Dewey's squadron will have been thoroughly renovated, and reinforced as it has been by the Monterey and the Monadnock and with other ironclads within easy reach, the admiral will be in shape to meet any who may threaten to disturb his possession of Manila.

THE PEACE COMMISSION.

Secretary Day—Justice White Will Not Accept Appointment—Senator Gray Under Consideration.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 6.—Secretary Day probably will not resume the discharge of the functions of Secretary of State, and it may be assumed that his connection with the department, save in the capacity of a peace commissioner, terminated when he left Washington for Ohio recently. Upon his return to Washington it is expected that he will come to the State Department for the purpose of bidding farewell to the employes.

There is no longer a reasonable doubt that Justice White has decided to decline the appointment of peace commissioner, and that he refrains from making public announcement of his purpose at the resquest of the President.

In the event of the declination of Justice White, rumor has it that the President has Senator Gray, of Delaware, under consideration for that place.

GEN. MILES' ARMY.

The Advance Guard from Porto Rico Arrived at New York.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, September 6.—The advance guard of General Miles' army returned from Porto Rico to-day on board the transport Chester. The steamer left Ponce last Thursday afternoon, six hours after the Obdam, bearing General Miles, his staff and the Second Wisconsin volunteers, had cleared for New York. The Obdam was seen but once on the voyage and that was on the first day out. The Chester brought, all told, 1,210 passengers, sixty officers and civilians, the Fourth Pennsylvania volunteers and several members of the Third Wisconsin volunteers. Brigadier Generals Schwan and Haines and their staffs were also on board.

General Borin has been appointed acting military governor of Paris, in succession to General Zurlinden, who has accepted the portfolio of minister of war.

TOWN OF ASHPOLE.

New and Thriving—Terminus of the Southeastern Railroad—In a Fine Trucking and Tobacco Section.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

The Ashpole section of Robeson county has long been a famous farming country, but recent developments have brought it to the front, and it is truly a country of rich promise.

The Southeastern Railroad has its terminus at Ashpole P. O., a lively and hustling new town of 250 souls, with an academy, under Prof. Lineberry, two churches, eight stores, including drug stores, and one of the largest lumber plants in the State.

This new town has just been surveyed, and town lots of good location are for sale to all comers. Situated in that famous section that extends through Robeson county into Marlboro, S. C., with the finest of artesian water and settled by live, energetic people, it is bound to come to the front.

It is within easy reach of the Atlantic Coast Line (fourteen miles to Elrod), and offers the finest advantages to truckers. Tobacco growers find a market near at hand, and the country is dotted with tobacco barns—no less than two hundred in the circuit of the Methodist minister located here.

Your correspondent found that every man here was a hustler and anxious to do anything to advance their town. Mr. N. G. Wade, president, and Mr. A. L. Jones, superintendent, of the S. E. R. R., and owners of the lumber plant, are both anxious to do all possible to advance the town.

It was a pleasant surprise to meet Rev. Erskine Pope, of the Methodist Church, who has served this circuit four years and he can refer with just pride to his ministry and work. He leaves a beautiful church building, begun, completed and paid for since he came to this circuit,

The business prospects are good. It is estimated that 4,000 bales of cotton will be marketed at Ashpole this season and Wilmington buyers are already represented.

VERMONT'S ELECTION.

Democrats Held Their Vote While That of the Republicans Decreased.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, VT., September 6.—In the regular biennial Vermont election to-day the Republicans elected their entire State ticket headed by Edward C. Smith, of St. Albans. It is probable that the Republicans have elected their entire list of thirty senators. Twenty-five Democratic representatives are reported elected in the 116 towns thus far heard from.

Thomas W. Moloney, of Rutland, the Democratic candidate for Governor, has polled about the same vote as the Democratic candidate four years ago, while the Republican vote for Governor has materially decreased.

ILLINOIS MINE TROUBLE.

Pana Placed Under Martial Law to Prevent a Clash With Strikers.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PANA, ILL., September 6.—This city was placed under martial law to-day. The sheriff took this step in order to prevent a clash between the striking coal miners and negro laborers who have taken the places of the strikers, Governor Tanner having so far failed to send any troops. The negroes have been kept closely guarded at Springside colliery until to-day when a half dozen of them marched into town and through the principal streets. They were not molested by the strikers.

ARKANSAS ELECTION.

Returns are Slow Coming In—A Light Vote Polled.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

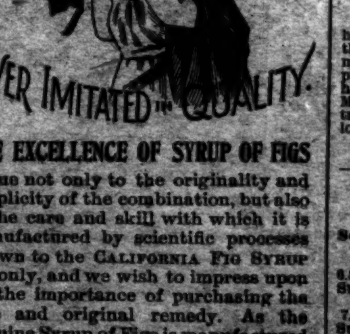

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., September 6. —The election returns are extremely slow in coming in. It seems despite the local contests the vote throughout the State was light. A report from Eastman township, Pulaski county, states the Republicans carried that township and that the ballot box was carried away by the Democrats and has not been heard of since. The railroad commission constitutional amendment is adopted by a large majority and the amendment providing for the levying of a three-mill road tax is also favorably acted upon.

WARM WIRELETS.

President McKinley and party returned yesterday to Washington, D. C.

Secretary Alger announces his intention to make a tour of the various camps at which large bodies of men are now stationed, with a view to ascertaining for himself the exact condition of affairs.

The camp at Anniston, Ala., in command of General Frank, has been named Camp Shipp in honor of Lieutenant, William E. Shipp, 10th cavalry, who was killed before Santiago. Lieutenant Shipp was appointed to West Point from North Carolina.
